Personnel Opinions

"When an individual employee's position is reallocated to a different job class in a higher pay grade, what considerations should govern the decision on whether or not the reallocated job should be filled competitively?" Comments by: Edwin M.
Lane; Allen A. Hyman; Robert A. Gross; and Ransford M. Smith, 62

"Under what circumstances, if any, do you believe that so-called 'personality tests' can be used effectively in a group testing situation for personnel selection purposes?" Comments by: Felix M. Lopez,

Jr.; S. E. Vines; Harold C. Bennett; and Ellis J. Berne, 142

"When the granting of periodic within-grade pay adjustments is tied into the operation of an employee performance rating system, what safeguards can be built into the system to prevent increases from becoming essentially automatic?" Comments by: Robert J. Batson; C. C. Jorgensen; Leroy J. Brenneman; and George J. Walker, 201

"When a new administration 'takes over' after an election, what role should the personnel office play, if any, in facilitating the transition of responsibility to newly elected or appointed public officials?" Comments by: Lew Fay; Hugh M. Morrison; W. J. Murray; and Theodore L. Sharp, 269
